Itinerary

Thursday

Arrival into Louisville.

Join your fellow travelers for a welcome cocktail reception and dinner at the hotel.

Friday

Today, experience Lexington, also known as “Thoroughbred City”, including a visit to a horse farm. Then, enjoy a guided tour of Keeneland Race Track, a internationally renowned racecourse and the Thoroughbred industry’s leading auction house. Following your visit, delight in a tour of Buffalo Trace Distillery and lunch in Lexington.

This evening, we will enjoy cocktails and dinner at Buck’s, a popular Louisville area restaurant.

Saturday

There are few American sporting events with the history and popularity of the Kentucky Derby. It’s rich traditions – sipping a mint julep, donning a beautiful hat, and joining fellow race fans in singing “My Old Kentucky Home” – transcend the Kentucky Derby from just a sporting event, making it a celebration of southern culture and a true icon of Americana. The Kentucky Derby is the longest running sporting event in the United States, dating back to 1875. The race is often referred to as "The Run for the Roses®" and has continuously produced “the most exciting two minutes in sports”; uninterrupted, even when coinciding with profound historical events like The Great Depression and World Wars I & II.

Private transportation via motor coach is provided to/from Derby Day.

Selected ticket to the Kentucky Derby is included—First Floor Grandstand, or Third Floor Grandstand. See ticket and hospitality options on page 3.

Sunday

Morning departures to your home city, or extend your hotel stay through Monday for free!

Itinerary subject to change.
